The Culture Show

Making Connections...

The Culture Show now turns its attention to art inspired by music and music inspired by art – two harmonizing genres to be creatively explored.

The arts are constantly engaged in a process of cross-fertilization that unceasingly shapes and nurtures artistic practices, visual expressions and sonic experiences. Artists can take emotions and atmospheres evoked by sound and interpret them into something visual, as can composers recreate with sound, images from a canvas or other form of visual art.

The possibilities are endless...
